MEMBER RECEIVES AWARD

Breezy Point, MN – Captain Joleen Stadslev received Minnesota Wing’s Administration Specialist of the Year Award during a ceremony on May 4th. Captain Stadslev is a member of Viking Squadron that meets Tuesday Nights at Bloomington Covenant Church.

The Administration Specialist Award recognizes an officer who insures that all records and documentation of a unit are in proper order and provides excellent customer service to the members of his or her unit. It also recognizes the officer’s expertise in the completion of administrative/executive support matters for the squadron.

Captain Stadslev received her award at the 2002 Minnesota Wing Conference, held at Breezy Point Resort 3-5 May.

Civil Air Patrol, the official U. S. Air Force Auxiliary, is a civilian, volunteer, nonprofit, service organization. The unpaid members perform more than 85 percent of inland search and rescue missions as tasked by the Air Force Rescue and Coordination Center. Volunteers also take a leading role in aerospace education and conduct one of America’s finest youth programs through CAP Cadet Programs.

There are more than 1300 Civil Air Patrol members in Minnesota.
